While I agree in the above view as a matter of policy I do not see any reason that the "contempt" should be granted again. Since the D. Ramadasi & all the local officers including the D.C. recommend the proposal it may be sanctioned as a special case.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the vernacular papers ending with Nanjangud Sub Division Officer's reportNo.R.O.C.349/21-22 dated 4th October 21 I have the honor to state that the Dharmadarsis of the Sri Srikanteswaraswamy temple at Nanjangud have in their proceedings of the meeting held on 23rd August 21, resolved that in case, men are not easily available to drag the car of the above institution on 'Pournavamy" days sanction may be obtained to incur an expenditure to the extent of Rs.5/- for procuring labour for the purpose. It is also seen from the record that whenever devotees, coming from the surrounding villages on such days, are not available to drag the car on the nights of Pounavami, the car was used to be dragged by the temple elephant which procedure it may be stated is not free from danger. The Amildar and the Sub Division Officer are therefore of opinion, that an expenditure of Rs.5/- may be allowed for the purpose on days when men are not available for gratuitous service. Under the above circumstances I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the above proposal.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedientservant,

For Deputy Commissioner,

Proceedings of the Government of H. H.
the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read:--

Letter No.R.C.174 of 1921-22/Miscellaneous dated the 22nd October 1921, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, requesting sanction to incur an expenditure of Rs.5/- on each pournavami day for hiring men to draw the car of the Sri Srikanteswaraswamy temple, at Nanjangud if men should not be available for rendering gratuitous service.

Order No. 2524-5 Miscellaneous 281-21-2

Dated Bangalore, 18th November 1921.

A car procession is a function for -- which devotees are expected to come in large numbers. The car is usually dragged voluntarily and without any expectation of worldly gain, as this is considered a meritorious act leading to their spiritual benefit. Therefore no payment ought to be necessary; but in view of the unanimous recommendation of the local officers, including the Deputy Commissioner, sanction is accorded to the present proposal, as a special case, the charge being met from the funds of the temple. But it is hoped that no occasion will arise for making payments for such a purpose and that the long standing mamool under which cars are dragged without wages by the devotees will continue, there being no reason to believe that there is less devotion in Nanjangud -- than in other places similarly circumstanced.
